I WISH YOU

I wish you . . .

Hope through the year
To get you through your stress and fear.

Feelings for all your friends
They'll help you to the very end.

Songbirds in the Spring
To give your heart a song to sing.

Courage and will to fight
To help you through the longest night.

Shelter from the storm
a cozy fire to keep you warm.

Integrity to keep you strong through your life, when right or wrong.

Knowledge and will to know to question all facts wherever you go.

Health and more than Wealth
I wish you . . .
Love.

Seniors Feast On Ham

Senior officers and sponsors sit at the head of the table.

The Holiday Inn in Covington, Virginia was the setting of the 1975 Senior Banquet. Mr. Totten gave the invocation which was immediately followed by Telah Lacey's welcome address. A delicious meal was enjoyed by all, after which Jimmy Leech presented a toast to the girls and Wanda Broady to the boys. Becky Agee then proposed a toast to the men faculty followed by Leonard Tinsley's thanks to the women faculty for "putting up" with the Class of 1975. Everyone enjoyed a special treat as Rhonda Melton played and sang a song which brought tears to everyone's eyes. The evening was topped off as each senior was allowed to glance into the crystal ball and read some rather hilarious futures. The evening came to a close as Telah Lacy gave the farewell speech. It was an unforgettable night that the Senior Class of 1975 will always remember.

Becky tells her appreciation to the men faculty.

The faculty sure seems to be enjoying a free meal.

This is the only time these seniors weren't talking all year — when they were eating!

LEFT: Wanda is joined by all the girls in telling the boys they are "Dyn-o-mite!"

RIGHT: Leonard looks as if he could be in show business.

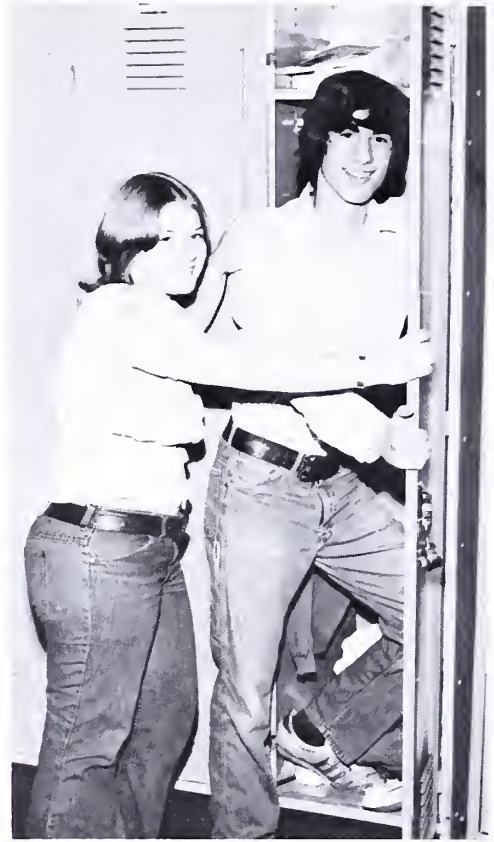

Senior Superlatives

MOST ATHLETIC: Becky Agee and Tussy Humphries.

BEST LOOKING: Mary Gray Dellinger and Dana Myers.

WITTIEST: Ruth Bridgers and Sammy Nicastro.

FRIENDLIEST: Alisa Spinner and Thomas Drumheller.

Super Seniors

MOST SCHOOL SPIRITED: Gail Duncan and Carlton Cooper.

BEST ALL AROUND: Dennis Duff and Mauri King.

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED: Tommy Slusser and Vicki Tuke.

MOST TALENTED: Stephen Saum and Rhonda Melton.

Seniors Present "Coffee

Sam, Grandma Wellington, and Greg enjoy themselves at the Coffee House.

The two building inspectors confer with Sam.

The police sergeant shuts up Grandma Wellington so that the Inspector can talk.

The story evolves around a group of teenagers who want to staff their own coffee house. With the help of Grandma Wellington, they rent an apartment from a reluctant landlord. Soon they are visited by a building inspector and his assistant, and several investigators about some "stolen" furniture. Finally, everything straightens itself out and the kids are left to themselves.

House of the Blue Lagoon"

Some kids enjoy themselves at the Coffee House.

Kevin Nicely, the true policeman, arrests Teresa Knick and Guy Pullen on charges of impersonating an officer.

The gas men arrive to install the meter.

Wishing Well Adds Romance

Couples dance to the theme song, "Pieces of April," as it is played by "Destiny."

"I've got pieces of April but its a morning in May" was the prevailing verse throughout the romantic and entrancing Junior-Senior Prom. Each couple was caught up in the theme "Pieces of April" as they walked down a flowered path which led to an overflowing water fountain.

The serving girls were the picture of spring in their variety of gaily colored dresses. The flowers used as centerpieces on every table added a finishing touch.

Couples danced to the beat of "Destiny". For many this represented the closing of their high school days. For the Juniors it was the creation of their dreams come true after many late nights and endless howls of hard work.

All in all, everyone enjoyed themselves and this night added another facet to their memory bouquet.

The faculty enjoys the dance almost as much as the Juniors and Seniors.

To A Memorable Night

SERVING GIRLS: Sandra Miller, Kim Goode, Trudie Lacey, Terry Putnam, Debbie Nicely, and Becky Edmunds.

Telah and Alisa look happy as they watch others dance.

Seniors Visit King's Dominion

The fountains serve as a beautiful sight with the double roller coaster in the background.

Bright and early on the morning of May 27, the Senior class traveled to King's Dominion in Doswell, Virginia. Upon entering the complex, the Seniors faced the breathtaking view of the Eiffel Tower, which overlooked the fabulous fountains. European shops where the true atmosphere of many foreign countries were experienced by all. One of the highlights of the visit was the Monorail. This combined the futuristic travel of tomorrow with the excitement of today's safari through a "mini-Africa". Many of the continent's native animals, such as zebras, lions, monkeys, and giraffes, were seen in a habitat not unlike their own. Other than the monorail, the Seniors and faculty members enjoyed such rides as the double roller coaster or the antique cars. "Yogi's Cave", the favorite of many Seniors, was a delight to all who dared enter. Although the day was long and the sun was hot, the Senior trip was a memorable experience which everyone would be glad to do again.

The Eiffel Tower, a scale model of the French one, looms over the skyline.

What is this — the Three Musketeers?

Having fun?

Don't look now, but the chains are about to break.

Class Night Is "Fun Night"

Reminiscing is the topic of Mauri and Tommy's presentation.

We leave . . . period.

Thomas uses his unique way of expression in presenting the Class Poem.

Annual Staff Works

This year the annual staff found themselves working double-time to do a double job. Due to unfortunate circumstances beyond their control, last year's yearbook was lost and, of course, had to be replaced. Although it wasn't their fault, the 1974-75 staff cheerfully accepted the responsibility of putting the annual back together. Although it wasn't as well put together as they would have hoped, the staff did an outstanding job in so little time.

The next task was to work on their own annual. They solicited ads, wrote copy, took pictures, and, in general, made your yearbook possible. Due to the rising cost of materials, they had to raise the price to make ends meet. With your past support, the yearbooks have been possible and with your continued support, they will always be available.

Drama Club Hosts District Festival

CENTER FLOOR: Mike Wright. SITTING: Stephen Saum, Blair Grimm, Ginny Weaver, Thomas Drumheller, Lisa Finestone, Lenwood Alston, Debbie Huntington. STANDING: Mrs. Adlis, sponsor; Vicki Tuke, president; Bonnie Dotson, Teresa Knick, Lana Stinespring, Bobby Hogg, Kate McMullen, Debbie Dobbs, Kevin Nicely, and Laura Taylor.

The Drama Club probably had one of its less active years this year. However, it was probably one of the most successful.

The club put on one performance this year: the one-act "The Man Who Stood by his Negative."

After giving a performance in front of the student body, the actors hosted the District Festival at CFHS, and placed first with a superior rating. The club's play earned a "good" rating at the regional festival, held at Chatham.

"Turn that music down!" exclaims the officer.

FHA Is Club For Future Homemakers

"Searching for the Real Me" was the '75 project for the Future Homemakers of America. Under the guidance of Mrs. Gretel J. Anderson, the FHA searched for self involvement in various activities. To complement their project, the members assumed responsibilities at their homes and they also prospected individual careers. Crafts were included as they learned to crochet, with some even venturing to make afghans for the cold winter.

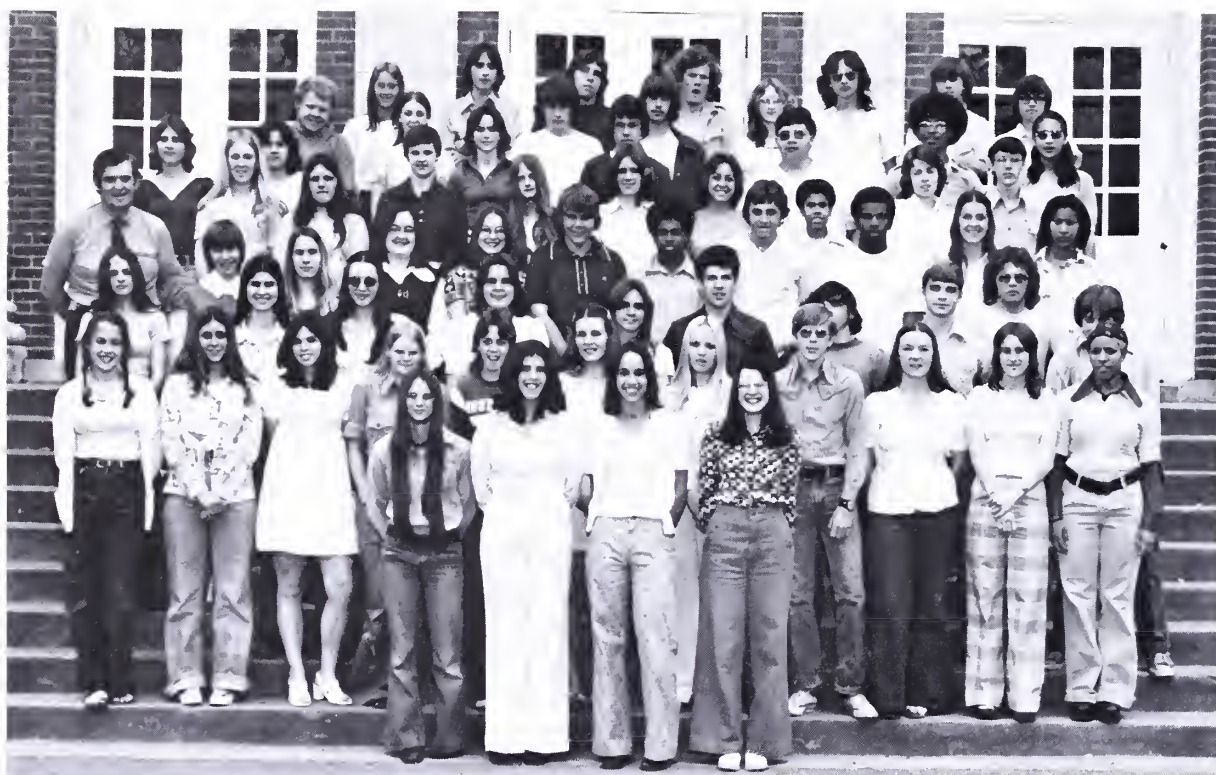

As is the custom, the FHA gave a box of food to a needy family at Christmas.

To highlight the homemakers' year, one of the members earned the title Family Leader of Tomorrow for winning the 1975 Betty Crocker award offered to each high school. The club was also represented at the State FHA meeting last summer where helpful hints were picked up for the upcoming year.

Anita Campbell, president, won the Betty Crocker Homemaking Award.

The Student Government Association, composed entirely of students, serves as the student's voice in school affairs.

This year the SGA once again spent long hours of work trying to revise the present exam policy into a form that would be better accepted by both the students and faculty. However, the proposed revisions failed to meet the approval of the faculty.

One program sponsored by the SGA that proved to be a success was the foreign exchange program. Two Brazilian students, Ricardo Berger and Maria Do Socorro Sobral Daracho, came to CFHS for a period of ten weeks. While here, they stayed in the homes of two students and attended school on a regular basis. The interchange between Maria and Ricardo and the students of CFHS proved both interesting and rewarding.

As a means of fund raising, the SGA sold jerseys in the school colors. They also sold paper supplies during lunch.

In May the SGA elected officers for next year. We wish them much success in their endeavors.

Students Experience Different Customs

On a very black Easter Friday, seven students and two chaperones from our school left for Baltimore's Friendship Airport. From there, a flight to New York was scheduled to begin this year's Tourgroup travels. Once in New York, the group had quite a long layover before boarding the planes that would take them overseas. One group journeyed to Germany, another went to Spain, and finally the last traveled to France.

Cindy Simmons, Vicki Tuke and Lana Stinespring were among the ones from our school that went to Germany. While in Germany, the group stayed in Munich. Many excursions were taken. The group saw castles, fountains, medieval-walled towns, museums, theaters, and many other sights. German customs, words and phrases were picked up.

In France, Patty Chambers and Tammy Smethers visited many different sights. They saw the Eiffel Tower, the Luxembourg Palace, famous cathedrals, Versailles, and many other world known places. They seemed to love Paris best of all. However, they splurged everywhere they went.

A little more western in Europe, Miss Fraley, Mike Wright, and Patty Stull were traveling throughout Spain. This trio visited the Royal Palace, the Valley of the Fallen, a bullfight, the Flamenco Dances, the Spanish Riviera, along with many other places. A lot of new customs were experienced and many new adventures taken.

Everyone who went on these journeys gained a lot of new knowledge along with an insight into a different way of life. Anybody who has an opportunity such as these people had, are encouraged to go and see the world unknown.

While touring the countryside of Germany, many wonderful sights were seen, such as this moat-surrounded castle.

The Junior Classical League is a club for Latin students which helps keep an appreciation for the ancient Latin culture alive. This year the club was not very active. They sent seven members to the state convention and were represented at the national JCL convention in New Hampshire by Sally Wolfe and Christy Putnam.

At the end of the year, the JCL held its annual Latin Banquet at the Holiday Inn in Covington. At the banquet, usually held to celebrate Latin Week, the club members had a taste of Latin food and enjoyed themselves immensely.

Everyone looks as if they are having a nice time!

Betas Sponsor Christmas Assembly

This year the Beta Club had a busy schedule with each month being filled with a new project. The annual tapping ceremony took place in October, with several new members being inducted under a candlelight assembly. The next project for the group was to act as a host for the Parent-Teacher conference.

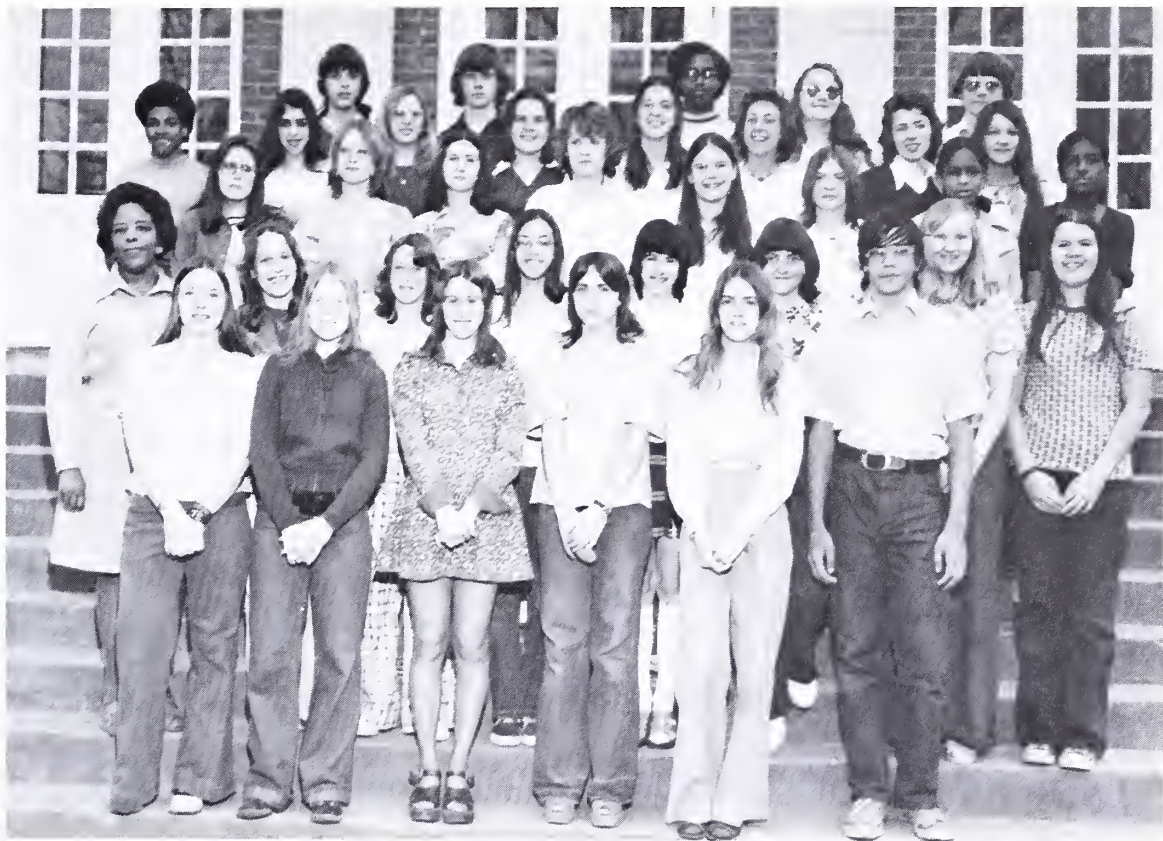

At Christmas, the club teamed up with the Tri-Hi-Y and sponsored an assembly complete with Santa Claus and Christmas tree. They also co-operated in a White Christmas basket which was taken to a well-deserving family in the community.

Along with the spring came Classroom Quiz, bake sales, and the Senior Newspaper. Although CFHS was defeated in the Quiz show, the fun was beyond competition. The newspaper and bake sales were held to raise money for the Senior Honor Cords.

The Junior Beta Club entered its second active year with a new sponsor. Under the guidance of Miss Louise Mansfield, the club stated its purpose, "To promote those qualities of character that make for good citizenship in the school community."

Ten new members were welcomed into the club this year, from the eighth and ninth grades, each with an average of eighty-five or above. At Easter time, the club sent out baskets with food and candy for two deserving families.

Tri-Hi-Y Has Busy Year

The Tri-Hi-Y once again served as a vital part of our school and community. A Thanksgiving basket given to a needy family was their first project. Once they got started, there was no stopping them. The Christmas Assembly provided the school with a festive air and added a boost as Santa Claus made his visit.

Tri-Hi-Y members volunteered their time for a week in March to run Meals-On-Wheels, a project to help senior citizens. The members went to Emmett Memorial Hospital where they picked up meals to be delivered to the elderly and those who could not prepare their own meals. Rounding out a year of activity was the annual trip to the Model General Assembly in Richmond where the Tri-Hi-Y, along with the Hi-Y, jointly sponsored a bill on the repeal of the Blue Law.

All in all, the year was successful under the guidance of Lana Stinespring, President, and Mrs. Clift, sponsor.

The Junior Tri-Hi-Y had an eventful year. Composed of ninth and tenth graders, the club started the year raising money by selling figured plaques. For Thanksgiving, the members contributed food to a basket for a needy family. They also put up cornucopias in each room with a message of thankfulness beneath them. At Christmas, they had a guest speaker at their meeting.

During Valentine's Week, each member drew a name for their heart sister and presented her with a little gift. Then, on the last day, each heart sister revealed her identity and gave a larger gift. At the Model General Assembly held in Richmond, Ginny Weaver represented the club as a page. To close out the year, the club held another fund-raising project, selling candy bars.

Hi-Y Sponsors Christmas Dance

What more could elderly and hospitalized people ask for than a hot, nourishing, stomach warming meal? Well, this year Hi-Y was proud to be a part of the community service "Meals on Wheels" during Christmas. Many needy people were provided with at least one hot meal a day for one week. This service proved to be very rewarding and the Hi-Y was happy to be a part of it.

Highlighting the year with dances was also a popular activity of the Hi-Y. Two sock hops were given along with a very appealing Christmas Dance.

In spring, three Hi-Y members attended Model General Assembly in Richmond. Dana Myers went as a delegate, Thomas Drumheller attended as a Senator, and Kevin Nicely went as a Clerk. A lot was learned about the political system along with having fun in the process.

Activity proved to be very popular in this years Hi-Y. Many things were accomplished and services were provided.

Although inactive, the Varsity Club continues to grow, which reflects the growing interest in sports. The club is for those who participated in sports and earned a letter in a specific sport. An interesting factor which seems to be on the increase, is the number of girls who are both going out for sports and lettering. Could this mean that Women's Lib has come to C.F.H.S.?

The Key Club, a branch of the Kiwanis, tries to give help in the community whenever they are needed. This year the club provided the community with many needed services.

As their first project, the members helped with the Fall Festival. They also helped in community projects such as the bloodmobile and Meals on Wheels. To aid in environmental protection, the club held a paper drive to recycle old newspapers. The Key Club was aided greatly in its work by its sponsor, Dick Krol.

KVG's Learn To Fight Fires

The KVG's is a club that hopes to remain inactive. In their Keep Virginia Green program, volunteers from the area high schools aid in the fighting of forest fires when their assistance is needed.

To prepare the volunteers for the time they may be called on to put out a fire, students are taken out and shown the procedures of fire fighting. Perhaps this knowledge will never be used, but it is reassuring to know that there are those who still care about their environment enough to want to protect it.

Coach Ed Scott contemplates a play.

With only twenty-one members, the Varsity football squad started the season well. With four consecutive wins, victory tasted sweet to the team and Coach Ed Scott. But as everyone knows, no one is lucky all the time. Because of costly errors, the Mounties had their first loss to Lexington in the annual Homecoming Game.

Down to eighteen players because of injuries, the Mounties fought hard against the arch rival, Alleghany Colts, but had no success. In the annual Little Brown Jug Game the mighty Mountaineers met another arch-rival, Covington. They gave their all, but it wasn't enough as the Jug remained in Covington.

A small team and a 4-5-1 record did not stop some Mounties from making headlines, as the C. F. H. S. football team led the parade in landing the most number of players on the offensive team of the All Blue Ridge District football team for this season. They should be commended for this honor and for their undying spirit.

J.V.'s Show Prevailing Spirit

The 1-7 record of the Junior Varsity football team does not reflect the learning that took place in the long hours of hard practice, nor the experience gained. The team consisting of about 12 freshmen and 16 8th graders showed fine spirit from the first long day of practice to the last game of the season. So, the year for the J.V.'s has been a rewarding one of learning football and good team co-operation with fine spirit prevailing throughout the season.

HOMECOMING QUEEN 1974
Mary Beth Putnam

Commencing Homecoming '74 was the annual parade sponsored by the S.G.A. An array of floats representing different classes and clubs created a colorful display.

Then onward to Memorial Park where the only distressing part of the evening occurred. The mighty Mountaineers were defeated by powerful Lexington High School. Highlighting the game was the crowning of the queen and her court at halftime.

For the first time in many years, the Homecoming Dance was held on stage in the auditorium. The couples entered into a "Rock 'n Roll Heaven," created by the sophomore class. Musical notes, a fountain, and all together beautiful decorations created the atmosphere for the music of the "El Dorado."

Make Many Fine Comebacks

Jim Cantrell, manager; Charles Anderson, Glenn Megginson, Dana Myers, Lawrence Berry, William Waddy, Tussy Humphries, Clarence Reynolds, and Coach Trammell.

This year's varsity basketball team had another fine season under the coaching of Colby Trammell. After losing their first three games, they came back with four straight victories in order to enter the annual Christmas Tournament. Whether winning or losing, the Mountaineers played with good sportsmanship and unbeatable spirit. At the close of a very exciting season — for many of the games were closer than the scores showed — the Mounties had nine wins and ten losses. They did not place in the District Tournament but were consoled in having two team members named to the All-District team.

Despite the fact that their record was only satisfying, the Junior Varsity Basketball team stepped onto the court showing strong team work and a high sense of Mountie spirit. The J.V.'s worked hard at giving their spectators moments which were filled with excitement and thrill. Area rivals were almost always toppled, giving the fans yet another reason to be proud of the team. Hard practice kept scoring consistent through many of the games. The competition was just too stiff in some cases.

Next year we look for a better season with more action-packed moments. We hope the fine coaching will continue and most of all, the fans support.

Up for a basket!

Eighth Graders Have Winning Season

KNEELING: Cecil Underwood, Herbert Sams — manager. STANDING: Coach J.C. Watson, Todd Via, Mark Persinger, Langston Johnson, William Deisher, Henry Barnes, Gregory Key, Jamie Taylor, Morrison Manner, Meade Edmunds, Steven Merchant, Van Morris, Tony Kimberlin, Matthew Barnett, Jimmy Burger.

Like the new year, CFHS is always ready to welcome the new. In this case the “new” was the eighth grade basketball team. Coached by J.C. Watson, the BabyMountaineers proved their name wrong as they posted an 8-2 win-loss record for the season. The team attained higher percentage of win-loss records than many of its previous seasons.

Numerous members of the team showed outstanding leadership and ability. So, look out for the little Mountaineers, there’s a promise of many exciting seasons to come.

Girl's J.V. Goes Undefeated

Lisa Tyree, Cheryl Burks, Mrs. Rankin, coach; Winona Bayne, Teresa Brown, Mable Reynolds.

The old saying, "Good things come in small packages", came true in Clifton Forge High School. With only five players, the girl's Junior Varsity Basketball Team came through the season as champions. Under the direction of Mrs. Rankin, this small team was able to compile an all-win and no-loss record. Many games provided tough competition which led to overtime thrillers. Hearty congratulations are in order for this hard-working J.V. team.

Girl's Basketball Team Plays Well

KNEELING: Rhonda Melton, Susie Crawford, Teresa Burks. STANDING: Vicki Pendleton, manager; Jennifer Hughes, Patti Chambers, Trudi Lacey, Jeanie Pendleton, and Mrs. Rankin, coach.

A 5-14 win-loss record does not reveal the true story of the Girl's Varsity Basketball team. Early in the season, the team was plagued with injuries to several of its members. As the season progressed, the team was left with only five members, all playing the entire game, with no substitution. Under the direction of Coach Cindy Rankin, the girls played with determination and stamina.

With the loss of only one senior this year, we can anticipate a bigger and stronger team next year.

SECOND ROW: Todd Tucker, Darryl McMillion, Mark Robinson, Dennis Huffinan, Eddie Morgan, Bobby Hogg, Paul Anama, Donald Hickenbotham, Dale Perry. Coach Ed Scott, ABSENT: David Massie.

The Mountie Matmen, coached by Ed Scott, has continued to improve each year with practice and practice and practice. Although the team record could have been better, the Grapplers were noted for their strong determination and hustle. Our team worked hard and did do well against the outstanding competition from bigger teams.

The wrestlers placed third in the Washington and Lee Christmas Tournament out of the eight teams. Several of the Grapplers placed high in this tournament with Sammy Nicastro and Alan Wills winning first places. Sammy and Alan continued to wrestle well as Sammy placed first in the District Tournament, third in the Region and fourth in the State, with an overall 19-5 record. Alan placed fourth in the district tournament.

Next years team looks to be very promising as many underclassmen will progress from all of their time and effort spent this year.

Indoor Track Team Wins First Meet

Tony sets the triple-jump record.

The 1975 Indoor Track Team, without a doubt, had its most successful year at CFHS. Although the team did not place high in the district meet, the overall season was very impressive.

In their first district meet the team finished second, in the second district meet, the green and gold shone as the team won its first meet in indoor history. In the district, CFHS placed third behind Andrew Lewis and Glenvar. The team sent a record-breaking eight members to the state meet. Three of them placed.

Women's lib was ever-present this year as four girls participated and made a very good showing in their events. Several Junior Varsity members made good showings in their events. Several Junior Varsity members made good showings in their events.

There was a great feeling of accomplishment and success as the season finally came to a close. Both the coaches and members were pleased with the year's performances.

Just a few more paces.

Varsity Track Wins Four Meets

Tussy easily outdistances his competitors.

Sammy strives to get ahead.

The CFHS Varsity Track Team had a good season this year, winning four meets and losing three. The team sent a group to both the Roanoke Relays and the Buena Vista Relays. The team made a good showing in all events, especially in the shot-put, discus, and relays. The team was plagued by injuries as Greg Via sustained a leg injury, hindering his participation in the distance running. With many underclassmen on the team to gain valuable experience, the CFHS Varsity Track Team is looking forward to many more winning seasons in the years to come.

This year's J. V. thinclads proved to have an encouraging season. During the regular track season, the team beat all three meets. The team also earned 4th place in Districts. Coach Buzzard commended the team for showing fine effort. Tony Martin, Ernie Peer, Russell Roland, David Clark, and Mike Johnson received the most.

Under the leadership of a new coach, Mrs. Rankin, the girls' track team was plagued with injuries. Many members had to drop track because of these injuries, reducing the size of the already small team. However, the girls who did remain on the team did well in their respective events. Even though the team did not win any meets, five members participated in the regional meets, representing CFHS well.

With the loss of only one senior and with three upcoming juniors, the girls' track team is left with a promising future.

This winter, a new sport came to Clifton Forge. Coached by Mrs. Cinda Rankin, the volleyball team did as well as could be expected with a record of 1-6. Since the sport began while basketball was still in season, the team members had to get up early in order to be at practice at 7:00. Also, since the games were played at 4:00 in the afternoon, team support from family and friends was lacking. But, after their win against Alleghany early in the season, the team felt encouraged. Surely, next year, most of the problems will be ironed out, and Clifton Forge High School will have another team to be proud of.

RIGHT: Time for another point.

Cross Country Track Added

Cross country got off on the right foot this year. New to CFHS, the team had eight members. The trek for the thinclads consisted of anywhere from 2.8 to 4 miles of rough terrain. With endurance and stamina, the team practiced many long, hard hours to prepare for their six meets. Greg Via, captain led the team by being top runner.

In its first year the team, through lack of experience, failed to win any of its meets. The members did manage, however, to gain valuable experience for future years.

Golf Team Shows Much Ability

Miss Watts — Coach, Keith Simmons, Willis Nichols, Rodney Mackey, Jimmy Leech, Tony Smith.

A well prepared group was the basis for this year's golf team. Ability beamed out of all the individuals. There were only three losses out of twelve matches. Keith Simmons was noted to have much potential for the future and was awarded "The Most Valuable Player" award. The "Most Improved Player" award was given to Tony Smith. Next year is expected to be even better as there will be more experience gained.

KNEELING: Patricia Whitmer, Martha Peters, Christy Putnam, Dale Perry, and Alex Gochenour, manager.
STANDING: John Van Beek, Sally Wolfe, Matthew O'Conner, Dana Myers, Kevin Rice, Morrison Manner, and Mr. Layman, coach.

The tennis team at CFHS had a mediocre season this year, winning three matches but losing eight.

At the spotlight was Dana Myers, Clifton's number one player. Myers compiles five singles victories and teamed up with second seeded John Van Beek in doubles to add six more wins to his record.

Coach Richard Layman started out with 41 willing candidates, cutting them to 13.

Alleghany was Clifton's first victim as the Mountie netmen thrashed them 8-1 at Linden Park. The second match also went to CFHS with a 5-0 blank. Covington also went down to Clifton in a close 5-4 thriller.

The 507 record doesn't reflect the valuable learning and "on-the-job" training took place, even while in an actual game. Most of the games only gave a slight hint as to the closeness of the game. Coach Watson, now in his fifth year of coaching, indicated that the team was relatively young and that the experience gained should pay off in the coming years. Let's hope that the team support continues to grow and cheer the team on to victory.

Cheerleaders Work Hard

The 1974-75 Varsity Football-Basketball Cheerleaders had another busy year. After many hot, summer practices this squad, along with the squads from Alleghany and Bath County High Schools, rode the school bus to Norfolk, Va. in order to participate in the N.C.A. Cheerleading Camp. For the remainder of the year, the cheerleaders held pep rallies, sold "Hogies", made posters, decorated houses of the players, held a cheerleading clinic, filled lockers with goodies, sponsored a Mountaineer day, a hat day, a green and gold day, and sponsored a hall decorating contest for the Little Brown Jug Game. Through both happy and sad times, these girls kept smiling and tried to spread enthusiasm and school spirit.

Boost Pep At C.F.H.S.

FIRST ROW: Kathryn Kostel, Betsy Wood. SECOND ROW: Ellen Jeffries, Patricia Whitmer, Barbara Gibson. THIRD ROW: Tammy McCoy, Dale Armstrong, Mary Kay Taylor, and Amelia Truett.

Ready? Okay! Many early summer mornings and late fall evenings these words prevail in the halls of C.F.H.S. If you are still wondering what it is, it's the Junior Varsity cheerleaders practice sessions which eventually culminate in the actual cheering of their team to victory.

In addition to boosting pep, the J.V. cheerleaders are present at every J.V. Football and Basketball game. They put in many hours of work and effort and they should be commended for their dedication to C.F.H.S.

The Wrestling Cheerleaders put out a very good effort this season and it showed through long hard hours of practice. They promoted school spirit by leading in the pep rally for the Clifton-Covington game. Besides going with the team to the regular meets, they also attended the District Tournament, Regionals and the Christmas Tournament at Washington and Lee. All in all, it's been a very active and rewarding year.

Administration Runs School System Well

Charles E. Darnell
University of West Virginia, B.S. in Agriculture; University of Virginia, M.Ed.
Superintendent of Schools

Awarding diplomas to graduating Seniors is one of the enjoyable duties of the administration.

Being the head man is a hard job, but Mr. C. E. Darnell manages beautifully. He "puts it all together" as superintendent of Clifton Forge public schools. He performs his duties well and is found to be most reliable and cooperative.

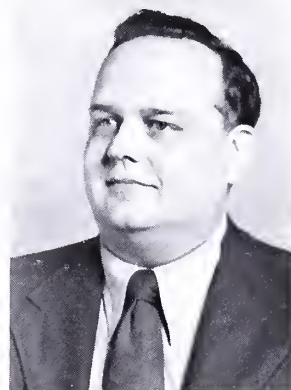

Another man who does a great deal and doesn't receive a lot of credit is our principal, A. G. Totten. Completing his third year at CFHS, he still commands respect while being receptive to the ideas of others.

Arthur Gail Totten
Emory and Henry, B.S. in Math; University of Virginia, M.Ed. Principal

His office is always open to those who come for a reason or just to chat. Mr. Strong, our assistant principal, aids Mr. Totten in his administrative duties, as well as being our school's athletic director.

Looking back on the year '74-'75, the administration once again gave a command performance and displayed their capabilities in running a school system.

Mr. Rob Goralewicz, who we are sorry to see leave, provides a helping hand for the eighth graders.

Both counselors aid students in finding jobs, applying to colleges, and obtaining financial aid for those planning to attend college. They also aid students by advising them as to what courses they should take while in high school. They are assisted in their work by students who serve as pages.

The Guidance Department of CFHS rounds out the diversified educational program offered to students. It helps "keep it all together."

The '74-'75 year for the Library Club has been full of the activities necessary to keep the library in order. Shelving and issuing books are only two of the many activities performed by the club. Each member gives up part of their study hall to work in the library. As a service to the community, some of the members aided in shelving the books in the new public library. Let's hope more clubs take this incentive and spread their services throughout the community.

To compensate for the hard work brought on by the busy schedules of the administration, the secretarial staff of Clifton Forge High School keeps pretty busy themselves. Not only does Mrs. Garrett keep the office undercontrol, but she often helps with the little emergencies that may arise during the course of a normal school day.

To help Mrs. Garrett and the faculty with their routine and sometimes not-so-routine work, Mrs. Truitt serves as teachers' aide. She is always running errands or substituting in classes. The office pages also contribute greatly in keeping the efficiency of our school at a maximum.

Students benefit greatly from business courses taught at CFHS.

"Thinking of buying chicken, Mrs. Clift?"

One department definitely open for business is that of Mrs. Clift and Miss Mansfield. For the first time this year, an ABC Shorthand, better known as stenograph, was offered for college-bound seniors. This course, as new to Miss Mansfield as to the students, helps one take more notes in less time. This aids whoever has to listen to a lecture or take notes on a movie, who knows? Maybe one may be able to sell his stenograph notes and become a millionaire. Descending from dream land, this course should improve one's note taking and lessen the common "writer's cramp".

One other new addition to the Business Department is the Consumer Education class taught by Mrs. Clift. Open to all seniors, this course is designed to equip one so he or she can handle the responsibilities that run a financial and business world.

Two guest speakers came to the classes. The first speaker spoke on bonds, stocks, and investments. The other lectured on insurance, which should prove to be helpful when one considers the number of seniors who drive. The class generally concentrated on discussions. One topic was how to handle budgets—a practical course for those who spend a month's allowance in one week.

Today, with a greater need for language study, students work to build their knowledge since the world centers around many languages. The 1974-75 CFHS Language Department widens its field with the addition of French along with Spanish and English courses. French is now offered to students interested in the basic culture of France.

The foreign language classes being offered are better understood with a greater knowledge of our own language. Our English teachers not only strive to give us a stronger language foundation, but also help us to express ourselves clearly.

The increase in size, interest, and potential of our Language Department will enable many of our goals to be reached through language study.

As the increase in Math knowledge is needed today, many theories, laws, functions, and table usages are highly stressed in our high school. These math practices may be difficult to learn, but quite a few students are consuming the knowledge rather rapidly.

Programming computers, filling out tax forms, and figuring costs of living require a strong background of math knowledge. In our world we are finding how math is really affecting our lives. Therefore, we find that it is the responsibility of each student to get proper education in this wide-spread field.

This year the History Department offered courses in World History, World Geography, U.S. History, and U.S. Government.

Special projects were carried out in the World Geography class. Students participated in panel discussions after completing research on such countries as Panama, Brazil, Argentina, and Peru. During the second semester, geography students completed relief maps on Asian countries. The students felt they gained valuable experience in actually making a map showing the physical features such as mountains, rivers, and plains.

Government students played a new game designed by Mrs. Van Lear to teach her students the procedure a presidential candidate goes through in order to reach office. The players had to be nominated and then had to receive enough electoral votes to be elected.

This year, a new outlook on U.S. History was brought to the Juniors, as Mr. Hambric introduced his own methods of teaching the subject. The History Department succeeded in providing diversified courses in an interesting manner.

Under the new instruction of Mrs. Cinda Rankin, swimming was held for the first two weeks of the year. Then, as the department moved into other sports, a soccer tournament was held between the girls' classes. Along with Miss Alma Watts and Coach Ed Scott, the students went on to learn individual sports as well as team sports.

Instruction doesn't stop outdoors though. Many hours are spent in the classroom. Health, Red Cross First Aid, and Driver's Education are taught. Behind-the-wheel training is conducted by Miss Watts.

Electives Allow For Individuality

John H. Baker
Western Kentucky
University, B.S. in Shop;
Shop, Wood II, Metals.
Junior Sponsor.

To break the monotony of the required courses, students have the opportunity to take electives designed to enrich the individual and provide him with a diversified curriculum.

Taught by Mr. Richard Layman, art encourages a young person to develop his artistic talents. The door to the "Betty Crocker" world is opened through home economics as presented by Mrs. Gretel Anderson.

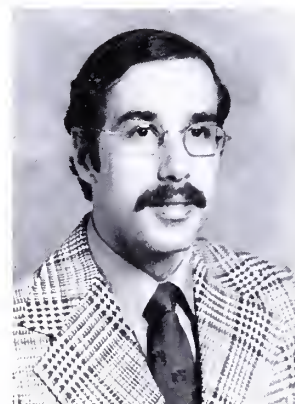

Opposing the domestic scene is the realm of woodworking. The Industrial Arts Department, under the supervision of Mr. William Graham and Mr. Buddy Baker, allows students to create beautiful furniture and learn precision.

Through these electives, one can design the cabinet that houses the stereo providing music while you are feasting on gourmet meals.

These creative students work on an art project for the year.

Band Has New Director

KNEELING: Joyce Merchant, Kathy McMillion, Robin Yopp, Terry Putnam. FRONT ROW: Donald Reynolds, Patricia Whitmer, Joel Mattox, Rita Gibson, Stephen Saum, Terri Bowers, Van Morris. SECOND ROW: Jeff Wright, Matthew Barnette, Kevin Forbes, Teresa Knick, Laura Taylor, Bobby Hogg, Ronnie Entsminger, Cyreita Lewis, Joe Wright. THIRD ROW: Larry Mattox, Danny Kay, Mike Wright, Pam Marshall, Elizabeth Monroe, David Kay, Bonnie Dotson. FOURTH ROW: Kate McMullan, Julia Hayslett, Nancy Allen, Deanne Porter, Leisa Tyree, Patricia Dameron, Paul Rice, Annette Anderson, Barbara Gibson, Suzanne Thompson, Teresa Burks, Cheryl Burks. BACK ROW: Cindy Scott, Robin Hardy, Ginny Weaver, Jeanette Lawler, Mary Kay Unroe, Donna Campbell, Mr. Young, Band Director.

The 1974-75 CFHS Band played their way through another "people pleasing" musical year. Mr. Steven Young, the band's new director, set many goals for the band and made the year one of the most successful in the band's past history.

The Christmas Concert provided many seasonal sounds for the audience. The winter concert also proved to be well presented. As the spring concert rolled around, the student body was both pleased and surprised at the popular sounds of today re-created by their own band.

The band continued its heavy schedule as they made an appearance at the rainy Vinton Dogwood Festival where they earned third place in their category.

An extra facet added to the band's many activities this year was the exchange concert program with the James River High School Band. The two bands traveled to each other's schools to present a concert to the student body.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE GRADUATES!

During your high school career, you have learned many things both in and out of the classroom which will be beneficial to you in the future. In the classroom, you have learned how to communicate. Out of the classroom, you have learned that the telephone is your most important communications link to distant places.

We would like to add this message to the other beneficial knowledge you have gained:
